Josh and Cara Blackmer moved to Asuncion, Paraguay, in 2009, to work as missionaries there and on Easter Island, Chile. In 2014, Josh and his family moved back to PBL to develop and work with the Family/Youth Program. They have two children, Josiah and Vivian.

In 2007 Ronnie & Jeanie Crocker established the Project Rescue Addiction Recovery Program in, GA. From 2007 to 2010, 75 men and women were accepted and helped. At this time 7 men are participating in the PRARP program in AL.

Brian & Sondra Davis have two boys, Noah and Bryson and have been working as missionaries since 1989. They have served as church planters in the Inner Cities of the U.S.; Benin, West Africa; Cape Town, South Africa; and most recently among the Kaonde tribe of Northwest Province, Zambia.

Demar Elam has preached the gospel in 41 countries of the world. They have lived in New Zealand, and served as a missionary in Hamilton for four years. He is the founder of Philippine Theological College, now Asian Christian University.

John M. Grubb spent 10 years as a missionary in Taiwan. He has made 55 mission trips and has traveled to 22 nations of the world. His work is under the oversight of the Chestnut Mountain Church of Christ in Chestnut Mountain, GA.

Scott & Jenny Harp have three children, all of whom are married, and also have three grandchildren. Scott spent over eight years living and working in New Zealand as a missionary.

Richard S. Harp and his wife Mary served as missionaries in Scotland from 2010-2013. They are both currently responsible for the eternal outcome of two souls, Gabriel (3) and James (1).

Robert & Mary Martin have worked in the Pacific for 43 years. Robert is the director of Pacific Islands Bible College working to educate men and women to spread the gospel. Robert and Mary do the Lord's work throughout the Pacific Islands with many other co-workers.

Ryan O'Rourke and his wife, Kelly, moved to Galway, Ireland in 2011 to establish a church and work as missionaries in a part of the world that was completely unexposed to simple, Biblical Christianity. They returned to the USA in August 2015, residing in Richmond, Virginia.

Scott Richards has made numerous mission trips to India, Nepal, the Pacific Islands, Nigeria and Nicaragua. He currently works in training gospel preachers in India, where he spends 6 or 7 months per year.

Scott & Rebecca Shanahan live and work in Micronesia on the island of Pohnpei and also make trips to the island of Kosrae. They made their first trip to Pohnpei in 2003 and have lived on the island for ten years.
