David Shannon began preaching at the age of 14 for small congregations in the surrounding areas of Centerville, TN. While at Freed-Hardeman University studying business and Bible he met his wife Tracie. They have 4 children and one grandson. He has served as the preacher of the Mt Juliet congregation for the past 16 years. David also serves on the board of Heritage University in Florence, AL, does mission work in El Salvador, conducts weekly one on one Bible studies and speaks at events across the country. His father is an Elder at the Brushy congregation and his mother is a teacher and speaker for ladies days and lectureships.
